

Name: _____

Date: _____

HIT

Across

3. Clinical score compromised of these: timing of onset, thrombocytopenia severity, thrombosis presence, and thrombocytopenia
7. The presence of HIT antibodies is detected by
8. What does HIT stand for?
9. Pathologic activation of intravascular coagulation leading to thrombocytopenia and bleeding
10. performed on patients either strongly suspected of having HIT or confirmed with HIT to rule out DVT?

Down

1. Class of drugs, which includes danaparoid and fondaparinux, binds to antithrombin and inhibits the factor Xa, which, in turn, decreases thrombin generation?
2. evidence of platelet activation by HIT antibodies in the presence of heparin is detected with ?
4. This class of drugs inhibits the thrombin generated in HIT and does not bind to PF4?
5. Treatment of thrombocytopenia?
6. the most commonly used VKA?