

Name: _____

Date: _____

HIV and AIDs

Across

2. This NNRTI can cause neural tube defects if taken while pregnant

7. This medication is used for the prevention of maternal-fetal transmission of HIV

8. Dark blue lesions characterize what disease?

9. 800-1200 cells/mm³ is the range for what type of cell?

10. Acute retroviral syndrome can be mistaken for _____-like symptoms

11. TB, Pneumonia, Septicemia are examples of what type of infections?

Down

1. Response to undiagnosed opportunistic infections is called _____ IRIS

3. This medication will treat HIV-1 infections

4. Exacerbation of treated opportunistic infection is called _____ IRIS.

5. HIV is considered _____ when CD4 cells reach 200?

6. PEP regimens should be initiated within days or hours of event?