

Name: _____

Date: _____

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

Across

2. The attempt by an individual or group to affect, influence or control people, phenomena and relationships by delimiting and asserting control over a geographic area

8. The rate of number of people who can read and write

12. The study of the effects of geography (human and physical) on politics and international relations

13. A group of people which is limited to a specific geographic location

14. A situation where a physical or mental impairment prevents a person from carrying out everyday activities

15. Economy system that determined by the government

Down

1. Rule by single person or a small group of people which have all the power to control people. Ex: North Korea

3. A sovereign state entirely enclosed by land. Ex: Switzerland

4. The type of approach attributed with the commitment to fieldwork.

5. The science of mapmaking. One of the earliest maps of the world was using this method, which created by Anaximander of Melitus.

6. Identity which is opposite of identity achievement

7. The greek scientist who was the first person to use the word "geography" and invented the discipline of geography

9. A reasonably large group of people with a common culture that occupy a particular territory.

10. Organization of economic alliances between Southeast Asia Countries

11. The economic activities that provide information, management and research services by highly-trained persons