

HUMAN GEOGRAPHY 3

Across

4. Barter and trade are the examples of this kind of economic system.
5. A kind of revolution which happened because of the large increase of crop production due to technological improvements.
9. A type of State which is organized around a single political core and also called as the national capital.
10. A process by which immigrants build multiple social, economic and cultural relations across geographic and or political boundaries.
12. A type of expansion diffusion; the rapid widespread diffusion of feature or trend throughout a population

13. A state that completely surrounds another. Ex: South Africa

14. Based on Erathosthenes, "geo" means "the earth" and _____ means "to write".

15. A boundary that has a naturally occurring barrier between two areas. Ex: rivers

Down

1. A sub-discipline of human geography which use geographical information, perspectives, and methods to the study of health, disease, and health care

2. A government system where all power is held by the government in the name of the people

3. Psychological and refers to our awareness and reaction to biological sex.

6. A type of diaspora which a class of people who have been banished from their place of origin and sent to another land.

7. Type of economic activities that taking raw materials directly from natural resources.

8. Type of exclusion which refers to the extent to which diverse values, norms and ways of living are accepted and respected.

11. A rate which measure the number of deaths in a particular population per unit of time.