

Hair Loss

Across

1. Hair-pulling disorder causes people to have an _____ urge to pull out their hair, whether it's from the scalp, the eyebrows or other areas of the body.
7. About 40% of men experience hair _____ after 3-6 months.
8. Minoxidil, applied _____, is widely used for the treatment of hair loss.
12. In the most common type of _____ hair loss, only the top of the head is affected.
15. Nonscarring hair loss is called alopecia areata occurs when the body's _____ system attacks hair follicles, causing sudden hair loss that leaves smooth, roundish bald patches on the skin.
16. Hair transplant or _____ surgery can make the most of the hair you have left.
18. Finasteride is used to _____ male pattern hair loss
19. Many people experience a general thinning of hair several months after a _____ or emotional shock.
20. Hair loss occurs when this cycle of hair growth and shedding is _____ or when the hair follicle is destroyed and replaced with scar tissue
24. most people _____ 50 to 100 hairs every day
25. Eat a _____ balanced diet.
30. Avoid compulsively _____, rubbing or pulling your hair.
32. Avoid harsh treatments such as hot rollers, _____ irons, hot oil treatments and permanents.
33. _____ changes and imbalances can cause temporary hair loss.
37. Excessive hairstyling or hairstyles that pull your hair _____, such as pigtails or cornrows, can cause traction alopecia.
39. _____ that cause scarring alopecia may result in permanent loss at the scarred areas.
42. UV _____ therapy to the head may not cause hair to grow back the same as it was before.
43. It is effective in helping promote _____ growth in both males and females with androgenic alopecia.

44. Effective treatments for some types of hair loss are _____.

45. Hair loss can be caused by drugs used for _____, arthritis, depression, heart problems, high blood pressure and birth control.
 46. Too much _____ A may cause hair loss as well.
 47. Once _____ are treated, hair generally grows back.
 49. If the affected person is well nourished, taking _____ is not known to help.
 50. Hair transplantation is a _____ technique that moves individual hair follicles from a part of the body called the donor site to bald or balding part of the body known as the recipient site.
- ## Down
2. _____ your hair gently when washing and brushing. A wide-toothed comb may help prevent pulling out hair.
 3. Examples of trigger events include sudden or excessive _____ loss, a high fever, surgery, or a death in the family.
 4. A number of factors can increase your risk of hair loss, including family history, age, poor _____, and certain medical conditions, such as diabetes and lupus Stress
 5. _____ tests may help uncover medical conditions related to hair loss, such as thyroid disease.
 6. But some hair loss is _____.
 9. Minoxidil is an over-the-_____ liquid or foam that you rub into your scalp twice a day to grow hair and to prevent further hair loss.
 10. Your doctor scrapes samples from the skin or from a few hairs plucked from the scalp to examine the hair _____ which can help determine whether an infection is causing hair loss.
 11. If hair loss is caused by an underlying disease, treatment for that disease will be _____.
 13. male pattern or female pattern baldness usually occurs _____ and in predictable patterns.
 14. Shedding a little amount of hair doesn't cause a noticeable amount thinning of scalp hair because new hair is _____ in at the same time.
 17. Treatments for hair loss include _____, surgery, laser therapy, and wigs or hairpieces.

21. Infections, such as _____, can invade the hair and skin of your scalp, leading to scaly patches and hair loss.

22. Hair loss is usually related to family history, _____ changes, medical conditions, or medications.
23. The most common cause of hair loss is a hereditary condition called male-pattern _____ or female-pattern baldness
26. Hot oil hair treatments and permanents can cause _____ of hair follicles that leads to hair loss.
27. Some studies show that the patchy hair loss caused by alopecia areata may be helped by lavender _____ combined with oils from thyme, rosemary and cedar wood.
28. Your surgeon removes tiny _____ of skin, each containing a few hairs, from the back or sides of your scalp.
29. You'll need a _____ for the wig from your doctor.
31. Avoid _____ hairstyles, such as braids, buns or ponytails.
34. You may want to try a wig or a _____ as an alternative to medical treatment or if you don't respond to treatment.
35. Your doctor uses a special instrument to examine hairs trimmed at their bases and _____ helps uncover possible disorders of the hair shaft.
36. Propecia is a prescription drug is available only to _____.
38. If your hair loss is due to a medical condition, the cost of a wig may be covered by _____.
40. It is the only topical product that is _____ approved for androgenic hair loss.
41. Your doctor gently pulls several _____ hairs to see how many come out which helps determine the stage of the shedding process.
48. With some conditions, such as patchy alopecia, hair may regrow without treatment within a _____.