

Hair and Fibers Vocabulary

Across

4. a cloth material made up of fibers woven or bonded together
 8. a fiber made from a man-made substance such as plastic
 12. a natural pigment found in the skin
 13. a tough protein polymer made of 20 different amino acids
 14. the tough outer covering of a hair composed of overlapping scales
 18. the lengthwise yarn or thread in a weave
 19. period of growth in the hair cycle
 23. a fabric made up two or more different types of fiber

24. a collection of mineral crystals formed into a recognizable pattern

25. final phase in hair growth

Down

1. term used in forensic to describe a sample of unknown origin
 2. region of hair with grains of pigment
 3. intermediate period of hair growth
 5. a spiral arrangement, like a corkscrew
 6. the smallest indivisible unit of a textile
 7. composed of polymers packed side by side

9. a continuous strand or fibers or filaments

10. the passing of evidence such as fiber from victim to suspect or vice versa

11. fabrics woven in a distinctive pattern

15. single strands of material

16. composed primarily of hydrocarbons

17. the lengthwise yard or thread in a weave

20. made up of many filaments twisted or bonded together

21. the central core of a hair fiber

22. a fabric made up of two or more different types of fiber