

Hardware and Software for disabilities.

Across

5. movable balls on top of a base that can be used to move the cursor on screen.

6. Software programs that provide either speech or Braille output

7. A Keyboard modification.

8. Used to press keys on keyboard

9. Allow persons with disabilities to control a computer and dictate documents verbally using spoken commands..

10. Enlarges text and graphics displayed on PC monitors.,

Down

1. software systems are used to scan printed materials directly into the PC to accommodate many types of disabilities.

2. Activated by exhaling and inhaling

3. Allow direct selection or activation of the computer by touching the screen

4. Normally manipulated by the hand and controls cursor on screen.