

Name: _____

Date: _____

Headstart Programs

Across

3. motor skills used for larger movements a child makes with his arms, legs, feet, or his entire body
7. how many weeks did the original head start program last?
8. a type of learning that takes place as a normal part of cognitive development
9. motor skills used to pick up small objects and hold a spoon
10. number of children and pregnant women that are supported by federal head start funds in a program at any one time during the program year

Down

1. process that starts in human infancy and continues throughout adolescent years concentrating on fine & motor skills
2. being able to convey information to people in a clear and simple way so it is understood
4. the capacity to think about objects in three dimensions and to draw conclusions about those objects limited formation.
5. the ability of children to be prepared for higher grades according to each state's standards
6. a type of an enrollment where the actual number of children and pregnant women that head start serves throughout the entire program year