

Health Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 2. A condition that occurs when pathogens enter the body, multiply, and damage body cells
- 5. A white blood cell that attacks invading pathogens
- 6. The state of being protected against a particular disease
- 9. A substance that kills cells or interferes with their functions
- 10. An organism, such as a tick, that carries and transmits pathogens to humans or other animals

- 12. A disease that is spread from one living thing to another through the environment
 - 13. A preparation of dead or weakened pathogens that are introduced into the body to stimulate an immune response
 - 14. A substance that is capable of triggering an immune response
- Down
- 1. A reaction to tissue damage caused by pain or injury
 - 3. An organism that causes disease

- 4. Specialized white blood cells that provide the body with immunity
- 7. Single-celled microorganisms
- 8. A protein that acts against a specific antigen
- 11. A form of genetic material that invades living cells to reproduce