

Name: _____

Date: _____

Health Insurance

1. A certain amount of money that the patient must pay each year toward his or her medical expenses BEFORE health insurance benefits begin A. premium
2. Written agreement (policy) between an insurance company and an individual whereby the insurance company promises to pay a specific sum of money on behalf of the patient if certain specified undesirable events happen. B. Blue Shield
3. People who are poor and deprived, usually without sufficient resources to take care of their daily needs. C. securitas
4. A periodic fee that a policyholder must pay to the insurance company in exchange for financial protection against loss. D. 26
5. A law that gives workers who lose their health insurance because of job loss the right to continue group coverage temporarily E. indigent
6. An online "marketplace" where one may shop for health insurance F. health insurance exchange
7. Fee-for-service plans are also called ... G. 18-36 months
8. amount of time that COBRA allows an employee keep their insurance after an employee quits their job. H. Lyndon B. Johnson
9. Most full-time employees are eligible for this type of insurance I. Blue Cross
10. As of the 2010 enactments, children can remain on their parents health insurance policies until this age. J. indemnity
11. How many new health care laws were enacted in 2010 (2014 deadlines) K. England
12. Medicare and Medicaid were introduced through what presidential administration L. deductible
13. This health insurance concept came from lumber and mining camps in the Pacific Northwest M. COBRA
14. In 1929, Justin Ford Kimball in Dallas, TX created an insurance plan for teachers called N. 2
15. The beginnings of insurance began in 1850 in what country? O. insurance
16. The word insurance is derived from this Latin word P. Group