

Health Occ Final Vocabulary

Across

- 2. Deficiency of water in the body.
- 8. Positioning and supporting the body so that all body parts are in a correct anatomical position.
- 9. A device placed on a bed to keep the top bed linens from contacting the legs and feet.
- 10. A bath in which all parts of a patient's body are bathed while the patient is confined to bed.
- 11. Care of the mouth and teeth.

- 12. An injection of fluid into the large intestine through the rectum.
- 13. Positioning the patient in a sitting position with their feet or legs over the side of the bed prior to ambulation.

Down

- 1. A form of low blood pressure occurring when you from sitting to standing.
- 3. Act of tucking the sheet and bed spread under the bed at an angle. Technique used to make the bed look neat and comfortable.

- 4. Bath in which only certain parts of the body are bathed or in which the health care provider bathes those body parts the patient can not reach.
- 5. Elastic or support hose used to support leg veins and increase circulation.
- 6. Vitals taken when a patient is standing and sitting. Normally to look for any abnormality.
- 7. Process of inhaling food, fluid, or a foreign substance into the respiratory tract.

Word Bank

- |                          |                         |               |              |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|---------------|--------------|
| mitered corner           | orthostatic hypotension | surgical hose | enema        |
| complete bed bath        | partial bed bath        | dangling      | oral hygiene |
| orthostatic VS alignment | dehydration             | bed cradle    | aspiration   |