

Health & Aging

Across

- 1. Another principle of Canadian health care (starts with "U")
- 5. How many determinants of health are there?
- 10. The Canadian Pension Plan and Quebec Pension Plan pay a modest pension to working Canadians when they retire; benefits are based on lifetime earnings contributions. Which pillar accomplishes this?
- 11. What is the study of the distribution of disease throughout a society's population?
- 13. Theory that points out that men and women experience aging in different ways and face different challenges.

15. Theory that believes retirement makes older people less important because they no longer contribute to society.

16. What physical activity does the 105 year old man, Fauja Singh, participate in?

Down

- 2. What can status can obesity be linked to?
- 3. Gender that is more likely to be alone and experience poverty in old age.
- 4. Canada's government-run health care insurance program that provides health coverage for all Canadians.

6. One of the five principles the Canadian health care system is based on. (starts with "a")

7. When people become older they are expected to?

8. Health can also improve with level of what?

9. A prejudice and discrimination based solely on age.

12. People between the ages of 65 and 75.

14. A state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.