

Health and Nutrition: Chapter 20

Across

7. The sex of over half of the HIV/Aids sufferers.
8. This may cause extra costs due to ill health, revenue loss or early death.
9. People's diets, to an extent, defines their health, growth and ____ potentials.
10. The science that developed its own autonomous scientific identity.

Down

1. A trauma HIV communities face, as they are ostracised.

2. The nutritional research route that found the nutritional trinity: ____, protein and fat.
3. An indicator of a mother's existing health and nutritional status.
4. A cost of malnutrition means decreased ____ due to days of lost labour.
5. An example of a less personally destructive option to access food, if living in a poor urban area, as a HIV-affected household.
6. Adequate sanitation and ____ improves wellbeing and overall quality of life.