

Health and Safety

Across

3. Why should a serious accident be reported to the enforcing authority? it is a _____ Requirement

6. What type of Sign indicates that something MUST be done?

8. 60 people are _____ each year through accidents on construction sites.

10. A method of enforcing regulations that are available to the Health and Safety Executive: A _____ Notice

12. under what act do Employers need to either prevent or reduce their workers' exposure to substances hazardous to health?

Down

1. the Hidden Cost of an accident is the initial costs multiplied by what?

2. Who is responsible for Health and Safety?

4. A _____ Occurrence, sometimes called a "Near Miss" is something that does not result in a reportable injury but clearly could have.

5. What Regulation oversees all other Legislation and Regulations?

7. When can a Health and Safety Executive attend a site?

9. this is a government funded organisation set up to oversee and ensure health and safety legislation is complied with in all workplaces.

11. who is responsible for providing a safe place of work, provide information, training and instructions for employees?