

Health and Social Care - Safeguarding

Across

3. This environmental factor means the individual becomes isolated and be more likely to move from one place to another
6. When an person believes an individual may be experiencing abuse it is there duty to _____
7. A sign of _____ abuse is unexplained lack of money or wish to spend money suddenly.
8. Lack of _____ training may lead to abuse of individuals as unsafe and abusive practices may result.
9. This form of abuse includes persistent failure to meet a person's basic physical or psychological needs.
10. A form of abuse that can occur opportunistically or premeditated.

Down

1. A sign of _____ abuse can include injuries that are the shape of objects, finger marks and scars.
2. When an individual has this condition they may not be able to recognise that abuse is happening or may have difficulty remembering the abuse.
4. Enabling individuals to think through what options are available promotes them to make their own _____.
5. Vulnerable adults/children who have been abused often feel unsafe. By building a a trusting professional _____ with these individuals can minimise the risk of abuse.