

Health and social care

Across

- 1. What is One type of discrimination?
- 4. One of an individuals rights include _____
- 8. What is one type of PPE that is used on the hands?
- 12. What is one type of PPE that is used to protect clothes?
- 15. One of the main three theories of learning is _____(B.F. Skinner created this)
- 18. What is one job that may require a health and social care degree?(relating to social care)
- 19. To become a social worker you must train for _____ years when studying an undergraduate degree
- 20. One of the main three theories of learning is _____(created by Piaget)

Down

- 2. One of the main three theories of learning is _____(created by Bandura)
- 3. Health and social care practitioners must put the _____ of a service user first
- 5. Practitioners must maintain _____ of an individuals personal information
- 6. One main skill a social worker needs
- 7. _____ practice is when you look back on your previous work to improve it.
- 9. The example of a dog producing saliva to the sound of a bell as a conditioned stimulis is called _____ conditioning
- 10. A _____ of confidentially Can lead to the practitioner getting a disciplinary or possibly losing their job

- 11. _____ conditioning is when something is learnt through rewards and consequences
- 13. What is one job that may require a health and social care degree?(relating to health care)
- 14. One skill a nurse needs is the management of _____
- 16. The elderly are more _____ to infections due to their weak immune system.
- 17. To become a nurse you must train for one to _____ years depending on the degree program