

Name: _____

Date: _____

Healthy Foundation Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. someone that purchases and uses goods or services

10. support for particular cause or policy

11. a type of health that refers to how you react to events in your life

14. act of doing something illegal for financial or personal gain

15. a type of health that refers to how well you get along with others

16. process by which people achieve their full potential

Down

1. being of good health

2. act of stopping something from happening

4. skills needed to help you say "no"

5. refers to the overall well-being of your body, your mind, and your relationships with other people

6. ability to interact with someone or something else (verbal or touch)

7. person who studies how people think, feel and behave

8. being dishonest of a medical practice

9. traits passed down from parents biologically

12. a type of health that describes a person's emotion and well being

13. a type of health that refers to how well your body functions