

Hematology Crossword

Across

3. An increased result in a hematocrit is due to what?
 4. WBCs are able to leave the blood through a process called...
 9. What type of anemia leads to an abnormal formation of hemoglobin?
 10. This is a formed element that contains hemoglobin
 13. An example of this function of blood is clotting proteins to prevent blood loss
 14. What is hemoglobin called when carbon dioxide attaches to it?

15. What WBC releases histamine to trigger an inflammatory response?

16. Phagocytic cells are a part of what system that help digest hemoglobin?

Down

1. Markers found on the RBC that such as A, and B are called what? It is another word for antigens
 2. This stem cell differentiates into specific blood cells
 5. What is type O- called because it doesn't contain any antigens? Universal...

6. What is the production of red blood cells called?

7. What WBC increases during acute bacterial infections?

8. An abnormally low WBC count is called...

11. This plasma protein contributes to osmotic pressure of plasma

12. This type of anemia is characterized by bursting of RBCs