

History of Education

Across

1. a public, tax-supported school
4. a legal doctrine that holds the equality of treatment is accorded when the races are provided
7. primary schools in colonial and other early periods in which students were taught by untrained women in the women's own homes
12. a classical secondary school in colonial America that emphasized elements of Latin and English grammar schools
13. a credit awarded to a student for successfully completing a high school course
14. a two year teacher education institution popular in the nineteenth century

15. a preschool, early childhood educational environment first designed by Freobel in the mid-nineteenth century
16. a psychological theory that interprets human behavior in terms of stimuli-response
17. a program that rounded out a child's colonial education
18. a single sheet of parchment containing the Lord's prayer and letters of the alphabet
19. a term applied to the gender stereotyping of career and occupational fields
20. the textbook that replaced the New England primer

Down

2. illustrated how education could transform society

3. first free secondary school
5. an educational institution for children in grades 1 through 5,6, or 8 often including kindergarten
6. a classical secondary school with a Latin and Greek curriculum preparing students for college
8. an educational philosophy emphasizing democracy, student needs, practical activities, and school community relationships
9. early childhood schools that adhere to the approach she developed almost a century ago. originally intended for disadvantaged students
10. meaning "in place of the parents"
11. one of the first textbooks in Colonial America, teaching reading and moral messages