

History of the Internet

Across

2. first person to write about connected computers
5. presented on and talked about ARPANET to interested scientists in 1972
7. Computer programs used to help people do things like work and play
8. US government agency concerned with formulating technologies that the US military can use
9. Massachusetts Institute of Technology

11. the way that computers would interact with each other over the Internet
12. twisted pair cables that let the computer both listen and send data when the line is clear
13. physical parts of the computer
14. set of instructions for the computer to follow
15. software that exposes its source code for user modification and redistribution
16. networks operate like a street grid

Down

1. the inventor of the modern Internet
3. Search engine
4. US government agency concerned with research into science and technology
6. way of describing the Internet before the Internet was created
10. Remote storage of data and programs accessed on the internet

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------|-----------------------------|------------------|------------------|
| galactic network | open source software | hardware | packet switching |
| DARPA | cloud computing | TCP/IP | Tim Berners Lee |
| MIT | National Science Foundation | computer program | Robert Kahn |
| Google | Ethernet | applications | J.C.R. Licklider |