

Histrionic Personality Disorder

Across

3. An attention-seeker who reveals their drama-filled life through tv and the internet.

5. A ___ exam must be taken in order to diagnose a patient.

7. Act or look overly ___.

10. Every problem the patient has is expressed in a ___ fashion.

11. It is more common in ___.

18. A psychologist will evaluate a patient's ___.

22. Number of traits needed for diagnosis.

23. The word "histrionic" comes from.

24. What their speech lacks.

25. Blame ___ on others.

27. People with this disorder can function at a ___ level.

28. Histrionic is a ___ disorder.

29. A person cannot be completely ___ from Histrionic.

31. President of the U.S. afflicted with Histrionic Disorder.

34. This is a ___ condition.

36. Therapy sessions should be focused on the ___ solutions to issues in the patient's life.

37. Need to be the center of ___.

38. Something people with Histrionic crave.

Down

1. Overly sensitive to ___ and/or disapproval.

2. Shows symptoms of this disorder through their stances on political/social issues.

4. Can't keep a job or relationship due to ___.

6. The definition of hysteria has ___ throughout all 5 versions of the DSM.

8. ___ chance of depression.

9. Are ___ to cope with losses/failures.

12. Name of the disorder.

13. The treatment of choice.

14. Overly concerned with their ___.

15. People act dramatically and ___ in order to draw attention to themselves.

16. People with Histrionic are ___ to treat.

17. Easily influenced by ___.

19. First recorded by ancient ___.

20. Emotions change ___.

21. Group and family therapy sessions are ___ recommended.

26. Constantly seek ___ from others.

30. What a person with Histrionic experiences if they aren't the center of attention.

32. The ___ definition of Histrionic has remained the same.

33. The cause is ___.

35. Went from being a famous, innocent teenager to an attention-seeking, seductive star.