Holidays Today

Across

- 4. The figurehead that children think of on Christmas morning.
- 6. Children learn that things can be handed out for free in life from this Halloween tradition.
- 8. A valentines gift that men are pressured to buy for their loved one.
- 9. People should be doing this instead of taking and or wanting more materialistic goods for themselves.
- 10. The people who enable this bad behavior to continue in children.

- 12. The people that should be important and cherished during the holidays.
  - 13. What children should feel towards the gifts that they do get during the holidays.
  - 14. What children beg for (they even make a list to Santa about it).
- Down
- 1. A holiday that is meant for being grateful, but Black Friday is the day after (which is all about receiving instead of giving).

- 2. This is an example of children not working hard to earn something (has to do with sports games).
- 3. What children should be to earn things in life.
- 5. This is when children feel like they deserve things in life without working for them.
- 7. Children want more due to the items given during the holidays.
- 11. This group as a whole will never stop the mass selling and advertising of goods due to the benefits in the economy.
