

Home Care Month

Across

2. return to a normal state of health, mind, or strength
 3. drug used to diagnose, cure, treat, or prevent disease
 5. diagnostic testing used to measure or examine cells
 6. providing care for the sick or terminally ill
 9. introduction of a liquid into a vein or subcutaneous tissue of the body
 15. responsible for the operation of the nursing unit over a specific time period
 17. the invasion and growth of germs in the body
 18. practice to maintain health and prevent disease through cleanliness

19. physical activity to sustain or improve health

20. colorless, odorless, tasteless gas essential to living organisms

22. provision of healthcare remotely by means of telecommunications

23. medicine dealing with old age medical care and treatment

24. a place where someone lives

Down

1. medicine dealing with children and their diseases

4. sympathetic consciousness of others' distress with a desire to alleviate it

7. ability to carry out one's own activities and care

8. specialized medical care for people living with a serious illness

10. short-term break for caregivers

11. misguided reaction to foreign substances by the immune system

12. physical removal, repair, or readjustment of organs and tissues

13. treatment intended to relieve or heal

14. area of medicine focused on something specific

16. state of being free from illness or injury

21. person trained to care for the sick or infirm