

Home Improvement Terms

Across

3. Jamb vertical sides of door and window
5. Zoning governmental specifications detailing how certain property may be
8. beadboard a type of paneling that is covered in a series of distinctive
9. German _____ smear mimics the look of irregular stones and heavy mortar joints, a style often found on centuries-old cottages and castles throughout northern
10. fixerupper Something that is dire need of repair, but is more of a hobby to fix rather than a
13. Grout a thin mortar that is typically used to fill the spaces between floor or wall
16. Watt the measure of the electrical requirement of an appliance or
17. pergola a slatted shading structure in a patio
19. barn _____ doors; sliding doors suspended by hooks on a stationary pole over the

20. cased _____ opening; an interior doorway or opening with all the trim and molding installed without the door or

21. Shiplap a type of wooden board milled with a halved groove called a rabbet, so the edges connect snugly together, one on top of the other, leaving a distinctive reveal line between

23. dutch _____ door; a door that is split into two sections, top and bottom, so that one half may be open while the other remains

Down

1. Tread the horizontal piece of a
2. Asbestos a material previously used in construction products, attractive due to its stability and fire-resistance, but proven to cause various types of lung
4. subway _____ style; A style of white glazed ceramic
6. RValue a measure of thermal resistance that gauges the effectiveness of different types of home

7. Enamel a type of paint that dries to a smooth, hard finish and comes in a range of

11. Gloss describes the level of the finish, or shine, of

12. vessel a type of sink that sits on the surface of a

14. Soffit the visible, finished underside of a structural part of a building; may include the underside of staircases, eaves, arches, beams, or a roof

15. HVAC all appliances used to condition the air within the

18. object _____ art; items framed and serving as part of the motif of a

22. Latex paint that can be removed with water while it is

Word Bank

step insulation tile home area tiles opening finishes Germany. overhang fixture job boards closed. paint grooves used counter room closure wet frames cancer