

Horse behavior and training

Across

- 4. Response to a stimulus that is learned
- 5. A horse that will run back to the barn
- 7. Behavior demonstrated by horses during defecation or urination
- 9. Activities horses use to maintain themselves in harmony with their environment and to adjust to sudden potentially harmful changes
- 11. Those horses with sunken eyes seeing less in front and behind than others

- 12. Imitating the behavior of other animals
- 14. A nervous horse
- 15. The imposition of a behavior pattern in a young animal by exposure to stimuli
- 17. Behavior indicating desire for care and attention
- 18. Mimicry behavior

Down

- 1. Combative behavior
- 2. Behavior exhibited by a horse during feeding
- 3. A response that occurs without practice

- 6. The use of multiple bouts of work interspersed with relief internal when partial recovery is allowed
- 8. The tendency of horses to do what the group does
- 10. Positive reinforcement
- 13. The stimulus used to train horses
- 16. Term used when the membrane of the mouth where the bit rests become toughened and the nerves deadened because of continued pressure from the bit