

Horticulture revision Term 2

Across

4. The edible part of a plant, such as the tuber of the potato.
 6. Refers to trees and shrubs that seasonally shed leaves.
 10. The main purpose of a greenhouse is to provide a controlled for plants
 11. The part of a flower that is the pollen made in
 12. This part of the plant produce food for the plant by photosynthesis.
 16. The male part of a flower
 18. The broadest category of scientific classification
 19. Beneficial insects can be, predators or parasitizers
 22. The first word in a scientific name is the

23. Which mineral is associated with the movement of water, nutrients and carbohydrates in plant tissue?
 26. The female part of the flower
 27. Anchor the plant and hold it upright

Down

1. A plant that retains green leaves throughout the year.
 2. The branch of agriculture dealing with garden crops
 3. A plant growing where it is not wanted
 5. Sexual propagation produces
 7. The part of the flower that contains the eggs/ovules
 8. The second word in a scientific name is the

9. What is the main function of a 'flower' in helping a plant grow?
 13. What language is used in scientific classification
 14. A biological method of seed dispersal
 15. Which organelle is the location of photosynthesis?
 17. A dandelion seed is dispersed by
 20. What is soil called that is a mixture of sand, silt, and clay?
 21. Growing plants from cuttings is a form of reproduction
 24. A coconut seed can be dispersed by
 25. What is the most important mineral for supporting plant growth?