

Hospitality- Security

Across

- 2. Rules that employees must follow to ensure security; sometimes called security procedures.
- 7. Actions taken to prevent crime and to protect the safety of people and property
- 10. Responsibility, especially responsibility to pay for damage or loss
- 17. A metal box that requires two keys to open
- 18. The act of walking or riding around an area for the purpose of maintaining security
- 19. A security officer who wears a uniform
- 20. Knowing where all hotel keys are located at all times and knowing who has each key.

- 21. A computerized burglar detection and alarm system
- 22. Insurance that pays for losses due to crimes such as theft, arson, forgery, and embezzlement

Down

- 1. A book in which security incidents are recorded; a communication tool between security agents.
- 3. The process of closely observing what is going on in an area.
- 4. A report that contains detailed information about an accident
- 5. A security officer that does not wear a uniform
- 6. Security features that are built into a building.
- 8. A large, locked room in which safe deposit boxes are usually kept.

- 9. Insurance that provides payment if the hospitality business is sued
- 11. A document that records the financial arrangement made to protect individuals or businesses.
- 12. A limit on the amount of money that a hotel must pay a guest for a loss of property
- 13. A system to discourage theft of lost items by hotel staff
- 14. Insurance that pays for loss or damage of property owned by the business.
- 15. The staff who carry out actions to prevent crime and protect the safety of people and property
- 16. A financial arrangement used to protect individuals or businesses against financial loss.