

House of the Seven Gables - Ch 3-6

Across

3. Very powerful or strong; deserving serious attention and respect; very difficult to deal with; large or impressive in size or amount
 8. A kind of court that has authority in a specific area
 9. Divination from auspices or omens

10. An old type of photograph that was made on a piece of silver or a piece of copper covered in silver
 11. Feeling or showing deep hatred or disapproval
 12. An important or famous person
 13. A short, wide piece of cloth that is worn around the neck by men with its ends tucked inside the collar of a shirt or sweater

Down

1. A quick and cheerful readiness to do something
 2. Between
 4. Marked by withdrawal from society
 5. Able to be seen or noticed
 6. Very old and no longer useful, popular, or accepted
 7. loud, excited, and emotional; involving a lot of violence, confusion, or disorder

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|------------|------------|---------------|------------|--------------|
| Personage | Augury | Recluse | Tumultuous | Betwixt |
| Antiquated | Alacrity | Perceptible | Tribunal | Contemptuous |
| Cravat | Formidable | Daguerreotype | | |