

How Well Do You Know Security?

Across

3. Someone riding your badge's access is doing this
4. Written communication generated from ESA equipment must be in this language
7. The owner of a badge with a red square has an active one
8. Unsolicited request for information from an unknown email source
12. Acronym when a company is under Foreign Ownership, Control or Influence
13. This must always be visible
14. The last name of Merrimack's FSO

18. Use this bin for disposal of company proprietary information
19. Minimum number of days needed to submit a Visit Request to meet with ESL affiliates

Down

1. The type of threat refers to the threat of an employee or contractor using their access, wittingly or not, to do harm to the security of the U.S.
2. Insulates us from our parent company and allows us to work on classified contracts
5. What not to write on your badge

6. Excessive use of this could reflect badly on the integrity of a cleared person
9. Highest level of classification for ESA
10. Our parent company is located in this country
11. The last name of Merrimack's AFSO
15. Information reported to Security on excessive use of something is what type of information
16. 123456 is a very weak one
17. One place to find the DSS Hotline phone number