

Name: _____

Date: _____

Human Body

Across

- 2. group of organs and other structures that regulates all body functions
- 12. group of organs and other structures that protects the body, retains fluids and helps to prevent infection
- 13. the basic units that combine to form all living tissue
- 14. the study of structures, including gross anatomy and microscopic anatomy

Down

- 1. how living organisms function

- 3. group of organs and other structures that eliminates waste and enables reproduction
- 4. group of organs and other structures that works together to carry out specific functions
- 5. group of organs and other structures that regulates and coordinates the activities of other systems by producing chemicals that influence tissue activity.
- 6. group of organs and other structures that digests food and eliminates wastes
- 7. group of organs and other structures that brings air into the body and removes wastes through a process called breathing, or respiration
- 8. group of organs and other structures that carries oxygen-rich blood and other nutrients throughout the body and removes waste
- 9. structure of similar tissues acting together to perform specific body functions.
- 10. organs whose functions are essential to life, including the brain, heart and lungs.
- 11. collection of similar cells acting together to perform specific body functions.