

Human Growth and Development

Across

2. three to six
 8. Conception to Birth
 9. a rapidly growing research field that investigates heritable alterations in gene expression caused by mechanisms other than changes in DNA sequence.
 10. Traits, abilities, and capabilities inherited from one's parents *Genetics
 13. Specialists in child development must take into consideration broad _____ factors and account for ethnic, racial, socioeconomic, and gender differences if they are to understand how people change and grow throughout the life span
 14. The part of personality that is rational and reasonable. *Reality principle
 16. six to twelve

17. Environmental influences that shape behavior
 18. The process of posing and answering questions using careful, controlled techniques that include systematic, orderly observation and the collection of data.
 19. Concentration on uniqueness of the individual Western Societies
 20. Birth to three
Down
 1. six to twenty
 3. Emphasizes the notion that the well-being of the group is more important than that of the individual.
 4. Particular Times when an organism is susceptible to certain kinds of stimuli in their environments.

5. Interdependence among members of societies Asian Cultures
 6. Environmental influences that shape behavior
 7. Specific times during development in which a particular event has the greatest consequence.
 11. Represents a person's conscience, incorporating distinctions between right and wrong.
 12. Basic units of genetic information
 15. The raw, unorganized, inborn part of personality that is present at birth.
 *Pleasure principle