

Human Rights Vocabulary

Across

- 2. the state of being free from danger or threat
- 4. money paid for work or a service
- 9. of, affecting, or done by all people or things in the world or in a particular group; applicable to all cases
- 10. the power or right to act, speak, or think as one wants without hindrance or restraint.
- 11. the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people or things, especially on the grounds of race, age, or sex.

Down

- 1. a person's home; the place where someone lives.
- 3. a right that is believed to belong justifiably to every person
- 5. the power to act as one pleases
- 6. a formal or explicit statement or announcement
- 7. based on or behaving according to what is morally right and fair
- 8. a line separating two political or geographical areas, especially countries.