

Hypovolemic Shock

Across

- 3. Feeling weak and/or tired
- 6. Start with 2 liters of _____ crystalloid solution infused rapidly as an attempt to quickly restore tissue perfusion
- 8. Round machine that takes pictures of your insides
- 12. Quick shallow breathing
- 13. blood loss
- 14. Number one cause for hypovolemic shock
- 15. During hypovolemic shock blood pressure tends to _____
- 16. excessive amount of urine
- 17. Rapid heartbeat

18. Red substance that is taken to determine different diagnosis

Down

- 1. _____ revolves around controlling loss of fluid and blood, replacing what's been lost, and stabilizing damage that both caused and resulted from the hypovolemic shock.
- 2. disorder that causes an imbalance of fluids in the body.
- 4. An ultrasound of the heart
- 5. In addition to administering fluids to restore intravascular volume, _____ the patient properly assists fluid redistribution

- 7. _____ should not be used because they can worsen tissue perfusion. These are a powerful class of drugs that induce vasoconstriction and thereby elevate MAP.
- 9. A diagnostic procedure that runs a plastic tube up your arm or leg into the heart
- 10. abnormal accumulation of fluid within the (peritoneal) cavity.
- 11. camera that visualizes the esophagus and other organs