

IQBAL CHAPTER 1 VOCABULARY

Across

- 2. exhaustion from work or labor
- 4. a thin piece of dark bluish-grey rock used as a writing surface
- 7. one whose business is loaning money
- 9. being held or tied to a promise or an obligation
- 10. continuing without interruption: nonstop

Down

- 1. a dull or stupid person
- 3. monetary unit of India and Pakistan
- 5. A hand operated machine for weaving fabrics
- 6. jealous: wanting something that someone else has
- 8. something that is owed, or must be paid, such as money, goods or services

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-------------|-------------|----------|---------|
| slate | bonded | debt | envious |
| rupee | fatigue | numskull | loom |
| incessantly | moneylender | | |