

ISHAMPOOS

Across

- 2. A comparison between two things.
- 5. Making an educated guess using the information given in a text, "reading in between" the lines.
- 7. The audience is explicitly told what a character is like.
- 9. A figure of speech in which contradictions are used in a phrase.

- 10. A comparison between two things using like or as.
- 11. The audience must infer what a character is like through actions and thoughts.
- 13. The description or nature of a character.
- 14. An exaggeration meant to be taken figuratively not literally.

Down

- 1. Human qualities are given to non living things.
- 3. The mimic of sounds using text.
- 4. When objects are attached to values and ideas.
- 6. Time and place of a text.
- 8. The repetition of sounds.
- 12. Language that appeals to the five senses.