

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

IT Crossword Networks

Across

- 6. A point where devices can connect in a network at a central point
- 7. A network that is made up of many devices, resources and networking equipment.
- 9. A switch that operates when a sound is detected
- 10. A networking device that interconnects two LANs or other networking devices and equipment into one extended network,

Down

- 1. Receives television transmissions from an orbiting satellite, in a form of microwaves

- 2. The practise of having multiple computing devices share resources or communicate, by interfacing the devices
- 3. Hardware device that allows for many devices to connect to one LAN
- 4. A networking device that transfers data between different networks via the internet
- 5. Branch or connect multiple LANs where the LANs are situated in different locations, such as towns or cities
- 8. A device that sends and receives data, over a satellite connection or telephone line, between different computers