

Name: _____

Date: _____

I Have Lived a Thousand Years

Across

- 4. an authoritative call to appear at a designated place or to attend to a duty
- 5. coming from or showing a sense of duty
- 7. putting an end to debate or question
- 11. refusing or likely to refuse to proceed, act, or function
- 13. to remove by or as if by pulling up by the root

- 15. unreasonably burdensome or severe
- 17. presenting, suggesting, or constituting a menace
- 18. soiled and disordered as if by being drenched
- 19. eager for food
- 20. not capable of being fathomed

Down

- 1. absurdly incongruous
- 2. incapable of moving or being moved

- 3. to make a show of intention to harm
- 6. amusing or laughable through obvious absurdity
- 8. determined after careful thought
- 9. done by stealth
- 10. being at variance
- 12. to satisfy fully or to excess
- 14. to lay waste
- 16. to enter into