

Name: _____

I have to do it

Across

7. Political control by Maori people over Maori affairs

8. The state of having, owning, or controlling something

9. A body establishes to settle. Certain types of dispute

10. The power or right to give orders, make decisions, and enforce obedience

Down

1. A formal or explicit statement or announcement

2. Supreme power or authority

3. Rise in opposition or armed resistance to an established government or leader

4. A fact or state of being independent

5. Academy study or achievement; learning at a high level

6. The office or position of being governor of a town, region or public institution