

Illegal Drugs

Across

3. the process of learning to live without drugs

5. the dried flowers and leaves of the plant that are smoked or mixed in food and eaten for intoxicating effects

8. a drug that distorts perceptions, causing the user to see or hear things that are not real

10. a drug that temporarily increases a person's energy and alertness

11. the taking of too much of a drug, which causes sickness, loss of consciousness, permanent damage, or even death

12. the intentional improper or unsafe use of a drug

13. a group of highly addictive drugs derived from the poppy plant that are used as pain relievers, anesthetics, and sedatives

Down

1. a synthetic version of the male hormone testosterone that is used to promote muscle development

2. a drug that causes relaxation and sleepiness

4. confronting a drug user about his or her drug abuse problem to stop him or her from using drugs

6. a drug that is inhaled as a vapor

7. a return to using drugs while trying to recover from drug addiction

9. a drug made to closely resemble a common illegal drug in chemical structure and effect