

In Some Sense... Vocabulary

Across

4. n. a lover of sound, especially of music
 6. adj. able to be heard; describes perceptible sound
 7. adj. able to feel things physically and emotionally; conscious
 9. v. to see in one's mind as a mental picture; to imagine
 10. n. a person authorized to listen to the claims or statements of others; an examiner

Down

1. n. the enjoyment of something for its taste; one's personal taste or liking
 2. v. to disagree with or differ in feelings from others; to withhold or deny agreement
 3. adj. capable of feelings or "sensing" (often in regards to what is right or appropriate to do)
 5. n. a person who "sees" what others cannot, for example a dreamer, mystic, or inventor
 8. n or v. extreme distaste; to cause nausea; to sicken due to revulsion