

Inclusion and Transition

Across

4. learning that emphasizes the simultaneous learning of students as they seek to achieve the goals.
6. instructions that focus on the explicit teaching of academics, adaptive, and functional skills.
9. tutoring that pairs older students with younger students to facilitate learning.
11. A support program whereby the individual receives cash payments to support living needs.
12. a national insurance program for individuals over the age of 65.
15. a healthcare program for people with disabilities, receiving SSI and families receiving welfare.

16. an education that students with disabilities receive the services and supports appropriate to their individual needs within the general education setting.
17. abbreviation for regular education initiative.
19. professionals, parents, and students working together to achieve a mutual goal.
20. also known as differentiated instructions.

Down

1. students with disabilities receive all instructions in a general education classroom.
2. family care provides a surrogate family for a person with disabilities
3. the placement of students with disabilities into general education classrooms for some or all of the school day.

5. involves students with disabilities receiving some of their instruction in a general education classroom, with "pull out" to another instructional setting.
7. a support that provided by and funded through the public school system.
8. services for students with disabilities consist of a coordinated set of activities.
10. a home provides housing for people with disabilities who require less supervision and support.
13. tutoring that facilitates learning of the students with disabilities in a general education class.
14. a support that consist of the students family and classmates.
18. a home arrangements for people with disabilities in which professionals provide ongoing training and support in a community home setting.