

Inclusive Communication

Across

2. When actions are taken that favour one group over another, in order to compensate for previous discrimination, it is called _____
3. To act on someone's behalf _____
4. when someone is treated in a way that causes them distress, humiliation, or offence _____
7. An Act passed by parliament in 1992, often called the _____
8. if someone is treated unfairly based on one or more of their attributes (age, gender, sexual preference, ethnicity, etc) _____

9. A computer which converts text to speech is an example of _____ technology

10. This type of discrimination is when everyone is treated in exactly the same way, but results in unequal opportunities _____

Down

1. when someone complains about discrimination, asserting their legal rights, it can lead to _____
5. when supports are provided to overcome barriers to participation, it is called _____
6. defined as having physical, intellectual, emotional, mental, learning, sensory challenges _____