

Industrial Revolution

Across

3. People who manage and assume the financial risks of starting a new business

9. The end location of the worlds first major rail line

13. Money used to invest in enterprises

14. A private road built by entrepreneurs who charged travelers a fee to use them

15. Data that is gathered and calculated to present information

16. A british philospfer and economist who advocated utilitarianism

18. The starting point of the worlds first major rail line

19. A political ideology in which there is a gradual transition from capitalism to sacralism instead of a violent overthrow of the system

Down

1. the process in which raw cotton was distributed to peasant families who spun it into thread and then wove in into cloth for their own homes

2. A british economist who studied the population exposition

4. The movement of people to cities

5. A scottish engineer who famously invented the steam engine

6. The process of taking over land formerly shared by peasant farmers

7. A drug that prevents pain during a surgery

8. A business organization in an area such as shipping, mining, railroads, or factories

10. American who invented the cotton gin, a machine that seperated the cotton seeds from the cotton at a fast rate

11. The process of separating iron from its core

12. Workers organizations

17. A multistory building divided into apartments