

Name: _____

Date: _____

Industrial Revolution

Across

2. An organization representing workers interests

4. A machine perfected by Samuel F.B.; uses pulses of electric current to send messages across long distances through wires

7. A business system where companies are allowed to conduct business without interference by the government

12. A usually small-scale industry carried on at home by family members using their own equipment

14. Developing industries for the production of goods

16. Rejected romanticism and sought to depict the details of everyday life

18. Economic and political system in which government owns the means of production and controls economic planning

21. A political and economic system in which society, usually in the form of the government, owns the means of production

22. The system of manufacturing large numbers of identical items

23. The process of heating liquids to kill bacteria and prevent fermentation

Down

1. The migration of people from rural areas to cities

3. A new style of painting in France in the 1860s in which artists used light, vivid color, and seeming motion to capture an impression of a scene

5. A period of rapid growth in the use of machines in manufacturing and production that began in the mid 1700s

6. The basic resources for industrialization such as land, labor, and capital

8. A measure of the quality of life

9. A risk taker who starts a new business within the the economic system of capitalism

10. Identical machine-made parts that can be substituted for each other in manufacturing

11. A process in Europe from 1700s to mid 1800s where landowners fenced small fields to create large farms

13. A mass-production process in which a product is moved forward through many work stations where workers perform specific tasks

15. A place where goods are manufactured in mass quantity

17. A process developed in the 1850s that led to faster, cheaper steel production

19. A huge stoppage

20. An artistic and literary movement which rejected the rationalism of the enlightenment