

Industrial Revoution

Across

3. A policy or attitude of letting things take their course without interfering
5. The production of large quantities of standardized articles by an automated mechanical process
8. A business or manufacturing activity carried on in a person's home
9. An organized association of workers, often in a trade or profession formed to protect & further their rights & interest
10. A group of people including merchants, traders, and artisans, whose rank is between nobles and peasants
11. Economic system in which the means of production are privately owned and operates for-profit
13. A building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or assembled by machine

14. Form of socialism created by Karl Marx, class struggle was inevitable and would lead to the creation of a classless society in which all wealth and property would be owned by the community as a whole
17. The legal process in England of consolidating small landholdings into larger farms
18. A room or set of rooms forming a separate residence within a house or block of apartments
19. An engine that uses the expansion & rapid condensation of steam to generate power
20. Describes imposed use in the production of goods or services in order to make an economic profit

Down

1. The development of industries in a country or region on a wide scale

2. A steel making process, now largely superseded in which carbon, silicon, and other inputs are removed from molten pig iron by oxidation in a blast of air in a special tilting retort
4. Period beginning in the 1700s in which production shifted from simple hand tools to complex machinery.
6. System in which the people as a whole rather than private individuals own all property & operate all businesses
7. Father of Communism
12. Father of Capitalism
15. The movement of people from rural areas to cities
16. a refusal to work organized by a body of employees as a form of protest, typically in an attempt to gain a concession or concessions from their employer