

Infant: Birth to One Year Crossword

Across

5. The ____ is an example of the steady development of the infant from reactive movements, such as reflexes, to fine motor movements, such as being able to pick up a small object with the fingers.

7. Appropriate and safe toys for the infant include items such as ____, teething rings, noisemakers, stuffed animals without buttons, and crib mirrors.

9. Erikson's theory, that the crisis of infancy is the development of "____".

10. Under no circumstances should the nurse ever use a ____ to warm formula.

11. ____ is a process of developing a meaningful relationship between the infant and the caregiver.

12. Measurements of children's growth are also called ____ measurements.

Down

1. ____, which is the process of maintaining a core body temperature, is a challenge for the newborn and is considered absolutely crucial for survival.

2. Uses finger and thumb to grasp items by 9 months; called ____.

3. Expect ____, a situation in which the child expresses anxiety when parents leave or the child is taken from the parents, to start at 8 to 10 months.

4. Parents are encouraged to hold their infant close, also known as ____ position.

6. ____ motor milestones of the infant that include: holding head up while lying prone, sits unsupported by 8 months, and stands alone by 12 months.

8. ____ motor milestones of the infant that include: identifying hands by 3 months, grasping rattle voluntarily by 4 months, and drinking from a tippy cup at 9 months.