

Infection Control

Across

6. One way in which infections are spread

8. Parasitic microorganism that lives on another living organism and cause disease

11. microorganisms that are found in water and soil environments

12. Soiled, unclean, not suitable for use

13. Infectious protein molecules

14. A microorganisms that cannot eat or reproduce on their own

15. Microorganisms that cause illness, infection, or disease

17. Causes athlete's foot, thrush, vaginitis, and some lung diseases

19. Infection affecting all of the body

Down

1. One way that microorganisms affect the body

2. Infections that happen slowly over a long period of time

3. Organisms that live on dead matter or tissues

4. Toxin that originates in the contents of the intestines

5. Tiny organism that can only be seen under a microscope

7. Interconnected events required for an infection to spread

9. Capable of being infected or affected

10. Infection affecting one area of the body

16. Infections that happen suddenly or last a short period of time

18. Organisms that require oxygen to survive