

Infection Control

Across

2. Oral care should be performed _____ times a day (24 hours) for dependent patients.
3. Most important defense in the spread of infection?
8. How do you clean your hands when caring for a C-diff patient?
9. Glucometers should be cleaned after each _____.
10. The term used for the type of precautions we use on every patient.

12. When performing an in and out cath or inserting a urinary catheter, the betadine should dry for _____ minutes.

13. Foley care should be provided _____ a day and PRN.

Down

1. If a patient has a central line and the _____ is wet, soiled or loose, notify the nurse as soon as possible.

4. What precaution would require wearing a N-95 respirator?

5. How long can C-diff spores live in the environment?

6. PPE includes gown, mask and _____.

7. What type of precautions would a patient infected with MRSA need?

11. This type of isolation requires the use of a surgical mask when entering the room.