

Infection Control

Across

- 1. Disease caused by growth of pathogens
- 3. disease-causing microorganism
- 5. one-celled microorganism that can be pathogenic or non-pathogenic
- 10. Small, usually one-celled living plants or animals
- 12. A microorganism with unique characteristics and therefore are classified in a Kingdom of their own.

13. Infection that occurs due to a weakened physiologic state.

14. pathogenic microorganisms

Down

- 2. Procedures to follow to prevent the spread of infectious diseases
- 4. Study of small organisms
- 6. Microorganisms that are common to a particular environment on or in the body

7. smallest of microbes that live inside cells dependent on them as a means of nutrients and reproduction

8. living plants or animals from which microorganisms derive nourishment

9. Infection that occurs while a patient is receiving health care.

11. A microorganism that is classified as animals

Word Bank

- |                    |                |              |                   |
|--------------------|----------------|--------------|-------------------|
| protozoa           | virus          | fungi        | pathogen          |
| Opportunistic      | microorganisms | microbes     | Infection Control |
| bacteria           | Normal Flora   | microbiology | host              |
| infectious disease | Nosocomial     |              |                   |