

Infection Prevention & Control unit

Across

2. puss-filled sputum that can be a result of an infection
 6. infection that was caught in the hospital.
 8. a bacterium , virus that can cause a disease
 9. the living microorganisms living on other organism causing a disease
 10. The tissue response to an injury from a pathogen
 12. Any person, animal, plant , soil or substance where infectious agents live and multiply

14. The absence of a bacteria , virus and other microorganism
 15. fluid secretion of the body
 16. What is it called when thing are polluting or poisoning?
 17. Microscopic organisms of a fungi or bacteria
 18. Any waste containing infectious materials such as blood

Down

1. Free from Bacteria totally clean
 3. The invasion of a bacteria , virus or parasite present in the body

4. the discipline w/preventing nosocomial or health care associated infection of epidemiology
 5. An infectious disease transmissible by direct contact
 7. an animate object that is contaminated with or exposed bacteria, virus or fungi
 11. A serious condition resting in a harmful microorganisms in the blood
 13. The process of cleaning something to destroy the bacteria